

Responses on LF Inquiry
	Chittenden Solid Waste District CSWD	Central Vermont Solid Waste Management District CVSWMD	Addison County Solid Waste Management District ACSWMD
Bristol allowed to join	CSWD Board decision Yes	CVSWMD Board decision. Yes	ACSWMD Board Decision Yes
Requires town (Bristol) vote	No joining fee, Town must accept pro rata share of long term debt. Currently, no long term debt.	No one-time joining fee.	District Board voted not to charge a joining fee.
Costs/condition of joining	No annual fee. All trash destined for a landfill generated from member district is subject to a $27.00 per ton fee to the hauler.	Annual per capita fee of $1. per person and a surcharge of 1.5 cents per pound ($30./ton)	No annual fee. All trash from Bristol would either go to the District or any private hauler pay a fee if taken elsewhere.
Annual or one-time fee.	CSWD offers this service	CVSWMD handles.	ACSWMD handles.
Would Bristol have to offer household hazardous waste collection?	CSWD pays all green-up fees for members.		Yes - Green-up Day
Would Town trucks be able to dump on special occasions (green-up day)	Haulers must be registered with CWSD. Licenses a $15.00 per truck. All subject to $27.00 per ton fee.	Yes at $10. per vehicle.	$20/year
Do haulers have to be registered with District Is there a fee?	Yes at 7 Drop-Off centers at the stated fee. Closest center is in Hinsburg. Bristol could become a Drop-Off center with CSWD Board approval.	CSW has a central VT transfer station, for haulers and individuals	No
Would local residents be able to drop off a bag of trash?			